

CALL OUT FOR SCHOOL PARTICIPATION

1st Annual Poetry Out Loud Competition

- The Guam Council on the Arts and Humanities Agency [CAHA], as the island's state arts agency is pleased to announce that for the first time students in Guam, will have the opportunity to participate in the Poetry Out Loud (POL) Program.
- POL is open to students grades 9 to 12 (SY 2020 - 2021)
- POL is a signature national education initiative of the National Endowment for the Arts that has enabled students across the U.S. and its jurisdictions to learn about great poetry through memorization and performance of the written.
- Guam's winner will compete against 54 other champions representing the states and territories in the National POL Finals scheduled for May 2021.

Interested schools should contact Jackie Balbas, Guam State Poetry Out Loud Coordinator/ CAHA Program Coordinator IV at 300-1205 or via email at jacqueline.balbas@caha.guam.gov for further information.

